Oakland Art Murrur Is Expanding — Now Runs Every Saturday Afternoon

First Friday Event Continues, but with Quieter Saturday Complement

Many of the galleries that participate in Oakland's highly popular Art Murrur gallery scene are extending their First Friday festivities to include Saturday hours, in what is hoped will lure in art enthusiasts who prefer a more relaxed scene. The new Saturday Stroll, as the Art Murrur collective is calling it, is expected to be quieter and more focused on the art in the galleries. It will run every Saturday afternoon, from 1 to 5 p.m.

The Saturday Stroll is meant to be more conducive to the presentation and appreciation of the art showing on gallery walls. Many galleries are planning to schedule artist talks and poetry readings on Saturday afternoon, usually on the second Saturday.

Select Oakland Art Murrur galleries have already joined the Saturday Stroll, which will concentrate on Oakland's Uptown district, along Telegraph Ave., Grand Ave., 23rd Street, 25th Street, and 26th Street.

Most of the district's galleries are on board for the new Saturday event.
